The scheme is to improve the quality of vocational training in the country and make it demand driven so as to ensure better employability of the graduates. The Vasco Govt. ITI is being upgraded under this scheme. The Institute Management Committee (IMC), headed by the industry Partner, constituted and registered as a Society, leads the process of up-gradation.

3) National Apprenticeship Promotion Scheme (NAPS)

The main objective of the scheme is to promote apprenticeship training and to increase the engagement of apprentices by offering the following incentives under this scheme:

- 1) Sharing of stipend with employers to a maximum limit of Rs. 1500/- per month per eligible Apprentice.
- 2) Sharing of Basic Training cost with Basic Training Providers to a maximum one time limit of Rs. 7500/- for 500 hours /3 months per eligible trainee.

STRIVE also supports sub-missions of the National Skill Development Mission (NSDM), namely i) institutional training and ii) trainers.

6) Dual System of Training (DST)

The objective of DST scheme is to enable industries and establishments to partner with Government and Private ITIs for conducting training programmes under high employability courses so as to fulfill their manpower requirements.

The DST is an amalgamation of theoretical training imparted through it is and practical training experience to students on industries latest/updated technologies. Under the DST scheme, the courses are conducted to meet the skilled workforce requirements of industry so that after completion of training, the trainee who are awarded National Trade Certificate (NTC) under the scheme have an edge over regular ITI pass outs in terms of employability and employment opportunities in Industry.

APPRENTICESHIP TRAINING SCHEME UNDER APPRENTICES ACT, 1961:

Millions of Indian youth should go for acquisition of skills and there should be a network across the country for this and not the archaic systems. They should acquire the skills which could contribute towards making India a modern country. Whenever they go to any country in the world, their skills must be appreciated.

The Apprentices Act, 1961 was enacted with the objective of regulating the program of training of apprentices in the industry by utilizing the facilities available therein for imparting on-the-job training. Ministry of Skill Development and Entrepreneurship is the administrative ministry responsible for implementation of the Act.

Apprenticeship training is one of the most efficient ways to develop skilled manpower for industry by using training facilities available in the establishments without putting any extra burden on exchequer to set up training infrastructure. Persons after undergoing apprenticeship training can easily adapt to industrial environment at the time of regular employment.

1 Apprenticeship Act 1961

The Government has brought comprehensive amendments in the Act in December 2014 to make it more attractive for both industry and youth. Major changes introduced in the amendment are: replacing the outdated system of trade wise and unit wise regulation of apprentices with a band of 2.5% to 15% of the total workforce (including contractual workers), introduction of optional trades, removing stringent clauses like imprisonment & allowing industries to out-source basic training.

2. National Apprenticeship Promotion Scheme

The scheme is for

- (i) Sharing of 25% of prescribed stipend subject to a maximum of Rs. 1500/-per month per apprentice with the employers. The stipend support would not be given during the basic training period for fresher apprentices.
- (ii) Sharing of basic training cost in respect of apprentices who come directly to apprenticeship training without any formal trade training. Basic training cost will be limited to Rs. 7500/-for a maximum of 500 hours/3 months.

Implementing Agencies

- (i) Regional Directorates of Apprenticeship Training (RDATs) under the control of Directorate General of Training will act as implementing agencies in their regions for Central Public Sector Undertaking and establishments operating their business in 4 or more States.
- (ii) State Apprenticeship Advisers (SAA) will act as implementing agencies for state public sector and private establishments under their jurisdiction.

Categories of Apprentice Engagement

The trainees from Industrial Training Institutes after completion of their trade courses under National Council of Vocational Training NCVT/SCVT may be engaged by employers for apprenticeship training in the trades designated under the Apprentices Act, 1961. Such trainees are given full credit of the period spent in Industrial Training Institutes and they are required to undergo apprenticeship training in specified industries only, for the remaining period of apprenticeship in the corresponding trades, provided they possess basic qualification, prescribed under the Apprenticeship Act, 1961 for the designated trade.

The trainees enrolled for the trade courses, covered under State Council of Vocational Training (SCVT) can also be engaged for apprenticeship training, subject to their fulfilling the conditions stipulated under the Apprentices Act, 1961 and Rules made there-under.

At the end of the prescribed course of apprenticeship training, the eligible apprentices have to appear for the All India Trade Test of Apprentices, conducted by the Ministry of Skill Development & Entrepreneurship, Government of India, New Delhi, under the aegis of NCVT, and those candidates passing this examination would be awarded National Apprenticeship Certificates, which are considered to be higher than the National Trade Certificates, that are awarded after any trainee successfully completes and passes out of respective training course in the ITIs.
